Belgrade, Serbia
02/03/2016 – 10/03/2016

INFO PACK

About project

Academic Society "Novi Beograd" will organize 8 days Training Course which will promote European citizenship, European awareness and active participation and will aim to improve the competences of the participants in these fields, more concretely focusing on overall improvement of Citizenship education in European youth work.

The project will support the professional development of youth workers and youth leaders in order to equip them with the right knowledge, skills and attitudes to organize and run activities on local, national or international level that aim to educate young people about citizenship, the European Union and participation in political, economic and social life by promoting European citizenship, European awareness, European identity, European values and active participation. The training course will also aim to foster international partnerships and cooperation in the youth field with organisations working on citizenship education, European citizenship and active participation of young people.

The project methodology will be based on non-formal education, experiential and intercultural learning with strong encouragement of sharing personal experiences, knowledge and best practices.
